TUITION FEE

- Tuition fee and other school fees are always paid in advance on quarterly basis (every 3 months).
- The fee is for full academic year, i.e. 12 months.
- $15.00 late fee will be charged for each month if not paid by due date.
- The official tuition fee bank receipt must be presented to the school accountant after every payment on time.
- If the student does not pay the fee for two consecutive months, the school has the right to suspend the student. In case of suspension/expulsion, the school may charge the student re-admission fee.
- It may be informed that the student will only be allowed to sit in the exam after clearance/settlement of all the outstanding dues of the school.
- O/A Level student must pay any past dues plus the rest of the academic year's fee at the time of Cambridge registration. The school reserves the right not to enroll the student for Cambridge Examination if the dues are not paid in full.
- Admission fee is non-refundable.
- Three months/quarterly fee will be paid in advance and is non-refundable in case of withdrawal of student.
- Any student leaving the school in mid-year will have to pay one quarter fee in advance and must inform/apply to the administration in writing, one month in advance prior to leaving the school.

LEAVING EARLY/COMING LATE

- Leaving early because of not having a class is not allowed as students are encouraged to sit in study areas or self-study.
- In case of leaving early, gate pass will only be issued in exceptional cases such as parents' consent or doctors' note etc.

I have carefully read and understood the above instructions and hereby agree to abide the above rules as well as other school policies and code of conduct.
